*Commit to spending 10 minutes every day to meditate and reflect on God's Word.
Write down what you have gleaned from each day's scripture.*

Several years ago I came across a lady on Facebook who created monthly Scripture writing plans. Several of my friends would share the new plan each month and I thought they would be a great addition to the monthly newsletter to help our listeners with their Scripture memory or daily devotionals. So, I contact Shannon at Sweet Blessings and asked her if she would allow me to put them in our monthly newsletter. I was very pleased to hear back from her and receive her permission to include them. However, several years ago Shannon needed to "step back" from her content creations. She allowed us to still use her Scripture writing plans which I have done from time to time. This last week I was searching for something on the internet and came across some plans from theruffledmango.com. I contacted the sweet ladies who run that site and asked if I might use their plans from time to time and they said "YES!". So, I want to be sure to give them credit for the plans as well as letting them know how much we appreciate them. I pray that you find the plans a blessing as well.

TRUE freedom comes in knowing Jesus as our Savior. We can only be freed from the bondage of sin through HIM. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Let's remember to thank God for that freedom every day.

Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

John 8:31-32

Christmas in July?

Are the kids already bored? Do you need a creative activity for them that does not involve a computer or TV screen? Here's an idea!

In November KBJS will once again begin collecting Christmas cards for residents of Assisted Living facilities and nursing homes in Cherokee County. How about grabbing some construction paper and craft supplies from the dollar stores and let them make some cards this summer? That way they can enjoy an indoor activity during the HOT summer that is not only FUN, but also focuses on others.

This also gives parents a great opportunity to once again stress the true meaning of the Christmas season during a time when you aren't also balancing schoolwork, extra curricular activities and the "hustle and bustle" of the holiday season. You can hang onto them until November OR go ahead and drop them by the radio station during normal business hours.
